

MSAD # 70

HOME/SCHOOL COMPACT

Roles and Responsibilities - To help all children achieve high standards . . .

Parents will...	Teachers will....	Students will...
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● work with the school team to know what's expected of your child academically and socially</li><li>● attend parent conferences</li><li>● stay current with communications from school (progress notes, report cards, policies)</li><li>● communicate with teachers about your child's life (interests, problems and concerns)</li><li>● set aside time to practice academic and social skills</li><li>● support your child's growth by attending Title I family engagement events</li><li>● support your child in following school routines and expectations</li><li>● attend school events that promote student and parent learning</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● make curriculum and learning and assessment results available to parents and students</li><li>● share student progress using assessment results and student work</li><li>● get to know the learner and teach to their strengths</li><li>● communicate in a timely manner any concerns about student progress</li><li>● send work home that provides opportunities to practice skills</li><li>● provide opportunities for parents to participate in school activities</li><li>● support students so that they can be successful in school, academically and socially</li><li>● plan events that promote student and parent engagement</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● strive to understand learning targets and work toward them</li><li>● be aware of their strengths and challenges and their next steps in their learning</li><li>● bring home school communications</li><li>● learn to communicate their needs, share interests and concerns</li><li>● practice skills at home in a variety of ways</li><li>● work successfully with a variety of peers and adults</li><li>● come to school ready to learn</li><li>● Read nightly</li></ul>